Miss Phillips

Pam,
We enjoyed getting to know you this year - it sure has been a long one!
Don't forget dear Mr. B. and our mutual friend Lois.
We wish you the best of luck and happiness for you and Mike.

- Sandy -

Pam -
I would try to say something or rather write something in shorthand but you probably couldn't read it, so I won't.
Good luck in all you do -

Love,
Connie

Pam,
This has been a boring year for me, but for you I'm happy because you met Mike. Be good to him, and have fun this summer.

Always,

Kelly

Dan -
Always remember this being Spanish class, and last year's class. It's been fun and I hope next year is even better. Good luck in everything you do and be good.

am, there goes. We really have had a all (your story) Good with Mike (if you read it) You two really make a great pair.
 When we get together again soon, we can go see Steve Story again and listen to all Steve & Mike's yet. Maybe I'll see you at Big Boy this summer if I get the job, good luck in all your. Be good and don't do anything I wouldn't. Best of luck Always

*Did you think that you could make things better pave the way to simplify your life if you put down your disturbing thoughts in a letter to be opened by some poor congressman's wife no!
cause all we want to do is work the land see a passing stranger and take his hand and hope that someone out there will understand

CLASSES

Class Officers '71, '72, '73

Cindy Weiteamp, Dan Hefner, Chris Gaskill, Donna Carr.

Dedicated to My Fellow Classmates and Students at CHS. I want to express to you my deepest appreciation and gratitude for allowing me to serve you in our final year at CHS.

I'll always remember with overwhelming sentiment all the joys, sorrows, trials, tribulations, the little ups-and-downs that accompanied us through these difficult years at this institution.

I want you all to know that in giving me your vote of confidence by electing me your president, you have provided me with one of the most valuable experiences in the entirety of my life. I have learned during my term the true meaning of equality and the democratic system around which our world revolves.

I would like to thank the faculty who so loyally voiced their admiration and supported any endeavors our class undertook through three glorious high school years. We received nothing but praise and encouragement from our capable teaching staff.

I mustn't neglect the administration's unfailing cooperation. They never conceived of snuffing out the spark of enthusiasm; and contributing many useful schemes for our betterment; never putting any obstacles in the way of accomplishment.

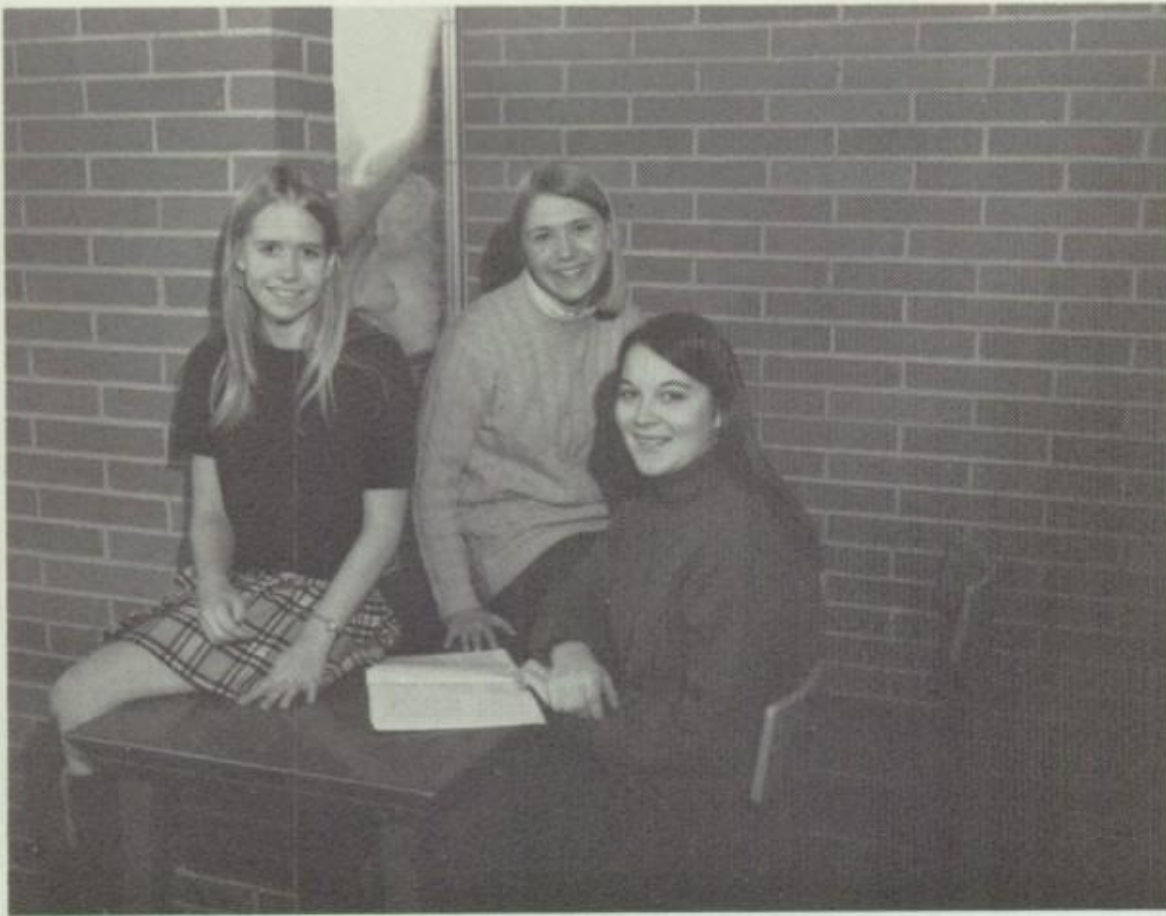

I have great hopes for the future of CHS after getting to know the underclassmen and realizing that they possess great working minds. Their uncontrolled enthusiasm for things truly relevant and meaningful illustrate their maturity and concern for self-improvement.

As for those of us leaving this institution, I wish them all success. As with all graduating classes, it is questionable as to whether some of us are going to achieve success in the true American sense and in the spirit of CHS. All we can do is pray they'll reform before it's too late. There is not much hope for them and they know who they are.

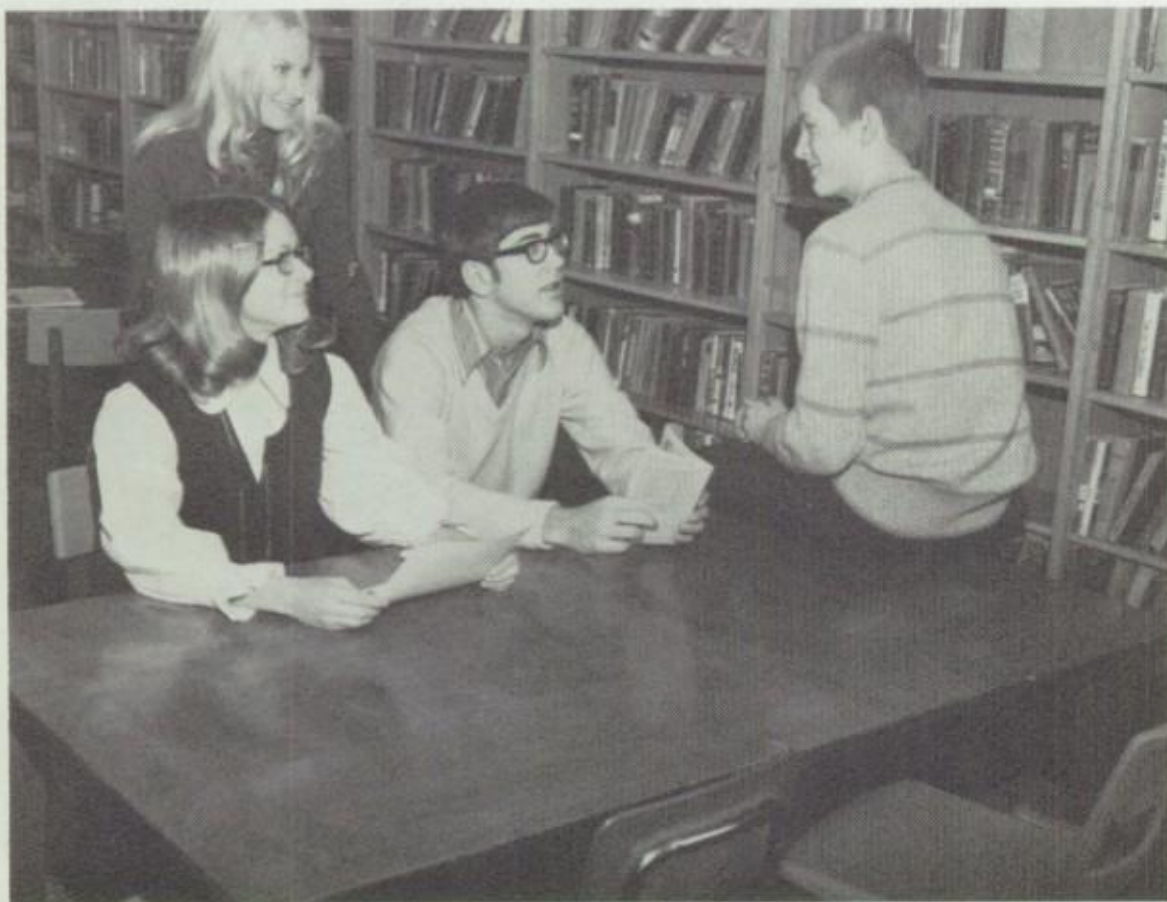

For my final bow I would like to thank the out-going city of Coldwater for welcoming me and my family in its warm embrace. We've never felt more a part of any town.

God Bless You . . . Every One.

graduation

— a time to look ahead

— a time for retrospection

. . . a day that is important in your life because you have earned it. A day that marks the beginning of your adulthood. Ahead lies new challenges, new worlds to conquer. Behind are your friends who, through their understanding and sympathies, you were able to overcome your childhood problems. Behind you are your teachers, dedicated in assisting you to become what you most desire, a responsible adult. Let us never forget the debt we owe to those who have helped us on our way.

Schoolbell go ding dong ding
The children all line up
They do what they are told
Take a little drink from the liars' cup Momma don't even care if what they learn is true or if it's even lies Just get them through the factories into production
Oh get them into line Late in the afternoon the children all come home They mind their manners well Their little lives are all laid out Momma don't seem to care that she may break their hearts She clips their wings off They'll never learn to fly Poor Momma needs a source of pride: a doctor son she'll have no matter what the cost to manhood or to soul Sun shine down brightly, shine down on all the land, shine down on the newborn lambs
The butcher's knife is in his hand Oh Momma keeps them unprepared to meet the enemy common to all Teach them that evil dwells across the sea Lives in a mountain like they see on TV Down in the heart of town the devil dresses up He keeps his nails clean Did you think he'd be a boogiemane Poor Mamma's stuck with sagging dreams She'll sell a son or two into some slavery that's lucrative and fine Just teach them not to criticize to yes the bosses, impress the clients.
O Teachers of the world,
teach them to fake it well Schoolbell go ding dong ding
The children all line up
Take a little drink from the liars' cup.

*People young and old Sayin' please take hold
Of a hand that's icy cold Teach my face to look bold,
And give me reason to live again,
And give my face a soft, warm smile,
Talk and be my friend awhile.*

Thinking lonely thoughts about tomorrow

Like my emptiness today

And how I know that the blues will haunt me

Till I die or rambling sets me straight

But we should be together come on all you people standing around our life's too fine to let it die and We can be together.

Pam,
How do you like this, I get my very own party you'd ever forget the good times. And when they do, great get to come. And when they do, great they will probably be in our great Senior year!! That will have to be some year. Remember to work only when fed is around, any other time, do as you please!!

Be good

Pam:
Good luck with your honey hike.

Our year is rolling around. Time goes so fast. I hope to get to know you better next year. Don't forget Stone or Bookkeeping (for it)
Be good and may
God Bless.

Pam, I invite me
Be sure & invite me to the wedding! I wouldn't want to miss it for the world.
Good luck anyway! Cheryl

Pam,
to a real sweet girl who was alot of fun in Spanish III.
Wish you were going to take Spanish III but thats the way it goes. Good luck in all you do!
